

William Corkine

The Second Booke of Ayres

1612

6. Shall I be with ioyes deceiued

1 Shall I be with ioyes deceiued ?
Can Loues bands be sealed with kisses ?
Cupid of his eyes bereaued,
Yet in darknesse seldome misses,
 Let not dallying lose these blisses.

2 Sleepe hath sealed their eyes and eares
That our loues so long haue guarded :
Himen hides your mayden feares,
Now my loue may be rewarded,
 Let my suite be now regarded.